What's changing around the Elephant?

London Southbank University (LSBU)
LSBU is investing in new buildings and public realm to create high quality spaces and facilities for its 26,000 students and staff.

The Bakerloo line
Out at public consultation currently, the extension of the Bakerloo line south through Lewisham to Hayes / Beckenham could be completed by 2030.

Formerly Tribeca, this development is expected to be completed in 2017, containing 373 apartments, 272-bed student accommodation, supermarket, other retail and leisure uses and a new Market Square.

Elephant Park 2017 -18
Following the demolition of the Heygate Estate, its rebuilding will be delivered in phases through to 2025 with up to 2469 new homes, retail and community facilities around a major new park.
